OAKLAND FAVORITES FALL

RACING AT COAST TRACK MARRED BY MIS- HAPS TO TWO HORSES.

Donovan and La Cazadora Victims of Accidents in Sloppy Going—Jockeys Escape Serious Consequences—Text of Anti-Betting Bill.

San Francisco, Cal., January 12.—The racing at Oakland today was marred by accidents in which two favorites fell. In the opening dash, when running in a good position, Donovan, the heavily supported first choice, stumbled in the sloppy going and fell. Jockey Kirschbaum escaped injury. Judge Henderson won the race easily from Swagelater and Faneuil Hall. La Cazadora was an odds-on favorite for the two-year-old race, but was bumped when the break came and fell. J. McIntyre was stunned, but revived when removed to the track hospital. He was shaken up and his mounts for the remainder of the afternoon were canceled. Millo, which was sold to C. P. Lamar just before the race, won from Aeguin and Billy Hancock. Daddy Gip proved best in the handicap and beat Jim Basey, the favorite. J. C. Clem led all the way in the fifth and Winberry won the closing dash in a drive with Camera.

Bubbling Water has been assigned 125 pounds for the Lissak Handicap, to be run Saturday, but it is improbable that she will start as she has been only in light training since her accident in the Christmas Handicap. Spellbound is in with 118 pounds. Jim Gaffney, Sea Cliff, Fort Johnson and Eddie Dale are other likely starters.

Earl Linnell has turned over to J. Dimond the horses he has been training for A. C. Henderson.

R. F. Carman, one of the most successful of eastern horsemen for the last two or three years, is due here from New York with his son in a day or two. The Carmans left their horses behind at Belmont Park, where they will be prepared for a spring campaign on the eastern circuit. They will be on-lookers at Oakland this month and next and will return east in March to take up their horses.

Frank G. Hogan, the Pasadena millionaire sportsman, who is being prominently mentioned as a probable southern member of the state racing commission in the event that advocates of the commission plan succeed in getting their bill through the legislature, has arrived for a stay of a week. His visit is wholly for pleasure, as he has not seen his colors in a race in a long time and he comes north to visit his partner, Miller Henderson, and enjoy the sport at Oakland track. Mr. Hogan is one of the leading business men in Pasadena, being identified with banking and realty enterprises. He maintains a large degree of interest in turf affairs and takes pride in his association with the Henderson & Hogan stable, managed by his partner.

F. H. Widemann has bought the horses owned by his brother, C. H. Widemann, including Dahlgren, Prosper and Dovalita, and the horses will run in his name hereafter. C. H. Widemann retains his broad-ownership, only disposing of his losses in training. Logan Denon remains with the stable as trainer.

The bill introduced in the California legislature by Senator Walker to reinforce the Walker-Otis law is exceedingly stringent and is designed to cover individual betting as well as bookmaking. Even ordinary wagers are prohibited by it. It specifically states that it applies not only to bookmakers and others who make betting a business, but to every person who, in a single instance, does any of the prohibited acts. The bill amends section 337 A of the penal code so as to cover six classes of persons, as follows:

"First, whoever engages in pool-selling or book-making with or without writing; second, whoever keeps or occupies any room, shed, tenement, booth, building, float, vessel, place, stand or inclosure of any kind with a book or books, paper or papers, apparatus, device or paraphernalia for recording any betting or for selling pools; third, whoever receives, holds or forwards any money, thing or consideration of value that is staked, pledged, bet or wagered, or is to be staked, etc., or is offered for that purpose; fourth, whoever records or registers any bet; fifth, the owner, lessee or occupant of any room, shed, tenement, booth, building, float, vessel, place, stand or inclosure of grounds, who permits it to be used for the purpose prohibited by the bill; sixth, whoever lays, makes, offers or accepts any bet."

The penalty is imprisonment for not less than thirty days or more than one year. In its various sections the bill provides that the prohibited acts shall be violations of the law, whether done for gain, hire, reward, gratuitously or otherwise. The betting which it is proposed to legislate against covers any contest or purported contest of skill, speed or power of endurance of man or beast or between men, beasts or mechanical apparatus, or upon the result or purported result of any lot, chance, casualty or unknown or contingent event whatsoever.

HOW THE FRENCH ENCOURAGE RACING.

"The success of racing in France may be attributed," says an English observer, "to the extended patronage accorded by the general public to the turf, almost nominal entries and forfeits, the amount of which is divided among the horses placed by the judge, and the absence of fees and deductions from the amount advertised as added money. This latter is the result of the gate money paid at the doors of the different meetings, and after deduction of the general expenses incurred by the management. There are supposed to be no stipendiaries save the starter, the handicapper and the judge. Owners are not called on to contribute to inflated dividends, since capital and interest are limited to $3,000 for the former and five per cent. for the latter. Accounts are examined and passed by government officials, and the four per cent., one-half of the commission deducted from the investments at the totalizator is applicable according to law towards the expense of working the mutuels, the surplus being devoted towards the cost of maintenance of the ground and other outlay for the development of racing. Training expenses are less onerous than in England, wages are lower, and owners have the right to claim half fares for their horses going backwards and forwards by rail to the different race meetings. The fundamental rule of the Societe d'Encouragement is to reserve its resources for the encouragement of home breeders. International events, such as the Grand Prix de Paris and the Prix du Conseil Municipal exist owing to the added money being offered in the first place by the City of Paris, which contributes $50,000, and the other $10,000 comes from the five leading railway companies. In the case of the latter race the added money is a throw-back from the lesser, the municipality of Paris, to the lessees, the Societe d'Encouragement. The fee to qualify for the Grand Prix de Paris is four sovereigns; due in the first year of the colt or filly. This generally provides more than enough to pay the amount reserved for second and third, $9,000. This amount comprises all liability of the City of Paris, for the third year, when the respective forfeits for the full liability of $200 is increased to twenty sovereigns, with a right of paying twenty-four sovereigns forfeit after the English Derby. Consequently an owner entering a yearling takes a good bet of 300 to 1."

MAN WITH THE HALTER IS ACTIVE.

Three Run-Ups Mark Day's Racing at Moncrief Park
—Leamence a Winner.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 12.—Perfect racing conditions attracted another large crowd to Moncrief Park this afternoon. An evenly balanced program was provided and a majority of the races furnished finishes close enough to make the sport interesting. Three favorites won, including I'm There, Darling and Ida D., and the former was at odds-on. Five of the races were selling affairs and the boosters were active. Peep Over, Ida D. and Darling being bid up and Casque being claimed. Guy Gray was responsible for the boosting of Peep Over. The latter was entered for $400, and when Mr. Gray bid $500 the gelding was knocked down to him. W. E. Suggs, owner of Peep Over, then retaliated by bidding up Darling, which was entered for $800. Mr. Suggs bid $1,000, but R. D. Williams, instead of making the usual $5 advance, bid $1,100 and retained the filly. Mr. Suggs also boosted Ida D. $900 over her entered price of $400, and S. A. Clouton retained her with an advance of $5. Mr. Clouton then claimed Casque, which finished second, for $725. Monte Preston, owner of Elmata Hamilton, which finished second to Peep Over, protested the payment of the purse on the ground that Peep Over had won a race at the Kentucky State Fair and therefore was not a maiden. The matter was taken under advisement and a decision will be rendered tomorrow.

The feature race, a mile allowance affair, brought out a smart field of plates and resulted in a strenuous stretch drive, in which Leamence just got up to beat Nick Stoner a nose. Billy Vanderveer was a length away and a head in advance of Redwine, with Orbicular fifth, another half length back. It was the latter's maiden effort at Moncrief and his first start in some months. He showed a fine turn of speed, but quit as if short.

Loftus rode his twenty-five winner when he captured the third race with Darling, which means that his apprenticeship will cease for all but his contract employees.

Jockeys Fain and D. Boland had their first mounts of the meeting today. Fain will ride for Clint De Witt and Boland for Guy Gray.

Louis Tauber has purchased the three-year-old Dusty from William Young and Hugh Penny has bought Third Rail from Guy Gray.

HARRIGAN ENCOUNTERS BAD LUCK.

El Paso, Tex., January 12.—Summerlike weather, ladies' day and the running of the Tres Castillos Stakes combined to attract about 3,500 patrons of the sport to Terrazas Park today. The running of the stakes was somewhat of a disappointment to the numerous admirers of Harrigan, the favorite, which met with much interference during the running, being bothered four times by General Marchmont, thus losing any chance he may have had of winning. The running of Spohn was in contrast to his preceding effort, when he was badly outpaced all the way and decisively beaten by Angelus, Sterlin and The Wolf.

The success of but one favorite gave the layers an opportunity to recover some of their losses of the past few days.

Wayne Lewis received a wire from owner G. W. J. Bissell today instructing him to sell his entire stable at auction, which will be done January 23. The most prominent in the string of ten are Count de Oro, Lady Dolores and Laveno.

Joe Hammerslaugh, brother of Izzy, arrived today to spend the remainder of the season. Sam Frank retired from the ranks of the layers today a considerable loser.

J. Sweigert, a prominent better, arrived from Los Angeles today.

S. Johnson, a full-blooded Indian, rode the winner of the third race and, careful nursing of the faint-hearted Ned Carmack, succeeded in securing "Sitting Bull," as he is familiarly known, is an old-time rider and answers to the age of fifty-eight years. He has ridden on many bush tracks.

An unusual amount of rough riding has marked the running of the races here of late and has caused much comment among race-goers.

ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB STALLION CONTEST.

Toronto, Ont., January 12.—The Ontario Jockey Club has announced the result of its stallion competition for the season of 1910. ### NOTES OF THE TURF.

The New Louisville Jockey Club has ordered eleven new pari-mutuel machines.

Arthur Elrod, manager of the Marlboro, Md., track, will ask the Jockey Club for dates for a spring meeting following that at Pimlico.

"The Germans are exceedingly fond of racing," says James H. McCormick. "Racing days are Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. The sport begins at three o'clock on Sundays and about two o'clock on weekdays. There are seven races each day. Kaiser Wilhelm and his staff attend the races frequently at the track situated in the Grunewald, which is the fashionable section of Germany. This race course cost $3,000,000. American race-goers think Belmont Park a grand track, and it certainly is, but it doesn't compare with the Grunewald."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Fred H., Chicago. Your case is difficult. Your horse was not the favorite, but one of two equal favorites. The point really is whether the bookmaker would have paid if your horse had won and whether you would have insisted on payment. You must settle it between you.

X. R., Pittsburg, Pa. There is nothing but custom to govern the case and customs differ. Generally speaking, if one makes a bet "each way," it means straight and place. However, it may just as well mean straight, place and show, local custom determining the matter. People should make their bets carefully, so that their meaning would require no after explanation.

TAMPA HAS A DISQUALIFICATION.

Tampa, Fla., January 12.—The first disqualification of the meeting came with the running of the opening dash this afternoon, when Melzar, which finished second, was set back to last place for fouling C. A. Leiman in the final sixteenth of the
